

2011-2012 JIIA RESEARCH PROJECT
“POLICIES NEEDED TO ENSURE JAPAN’S INTERNATIONAL COMPETITIVENESS”

INTRODUCTION

Toward Ensuring Japan's International Competitiveness	1
	ITŌ Takatoshi

PART 1

—SECURING LABOR RESOURCES AND YOUTH EMPLOYMENT—

The Growing Population Onus and Manpower Issues	18
	KOMINE Takao
Policy Responses to Youth Employment Issues	47
	OHTA Souichi

PART 2

—LIBERALIZING TRADE AND EXPANDING DOMESTIC INVESTMENT—

Liberalizing Trade and Investment and Ensuring Japan’s Competitiveness	68
	ABE Kazutomo
Toward Expanding Sluggish Inward Foreign Direct Investment in Japan	89
	URATA Shujirō

PART 3

—HARMONIZING REGULATIONS AND ESTABLISHING R&D SYSTEMS FOR INTERNATIONAL STANDARDS—

Regulatory/Systemic Reforms for Maintaining/Enhancing Competitiveness: The Importance of Developing a Multi-tiered Strategy	113
	NAKAGAWA Junji
Developing R&D Capabilities Suited to International Standard Acquisition	168
	NAGAOKA Sadao

PART 4

—HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT FOR JAPAN’S INTERNATIONAL COMPETITIVENESS—

Development of Internationally Viable Human Resources: Open Recruitment of Graduates for National Civil Service A Case Study of Australia	184
	HATTA Tatsuo
Rebuilding Japan's International Competitiveness and Developing Global Human Resources: From the Perspective of Competition with South Korea and China	206
	FUKAGAWA Yukiko
Profiles	249

*This research project was organized as one of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs’ FY2011 international affairs research/recommendation projects.